

Chicago Penthouse

This fireplace water feature, measuring approximately 10 1/2 ft. wide by 1 1/2 ft. tall, was custom designed for a residential penthouse in Chicago, Illinois. The feature consists of glass and stainless steel along with the necessary components for fire and flowing water. This one-of-a-kind project is a great example of the modern, architecturally integrated work that has become synonymous with Water Studio.

Type

Fire & water feature in a penthouse

Materials

glass, stainless steel

Location

Chicago, IL

Architect

Simeone Dreary Design Group