

Dana Point Residence

This curved water veil was installed in a new contemporary residence in Dana Point, California. Built as a geometric continuation of an existing curved wall at the entrance, the water feature stands 7.5 ft. high and 10 ft wide. Water flows down the stainless steel veil into a hidden recessed basin.

Type

Large curved water veil in the entry way

Materials

stainless steel, polished black river rocks

Location

Dana Point, CA