

Naples Grande Resort Lobby

A twenty foot diameter water sculpture, made of smooth and textured stainless steel, captures a structural column between the main lobby escalator. Water falls down both the inner and outer curved surfaces and gently glides into a granite reflecting pool, creating a striking centerpiece for this office building lobby in Naples, Florida.

Type

Water sculpture in a hotel lobby

Materials

textured and smooth stainless steel

Location

Naples, FL

Architect

Barry Design Associates