

Silverton Casino

This impressive fire and water feature is the centerpiece of the Silverton Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada. Standing 8 ft., 6 ft. and 4 ft. tall, it encompasses three curved column sculptures made of ridged and smooth copper with bronze patina. Designed to fit in perfectly with the Western color scheme and decor, water continually flows down the glistening pillars, while fire erupts from the center upward, and below at its curved base.

Type

Fire & water sculpture in a hotel restaurant

Materials

ridged and smooth copper with bronze patina, crushed glass pebbles

Location

Las Vegas, NV

Architect

Paul Steelman Design Group