

Green Valley Circle

Built out of shimmering stainless steel mesh, the compelling 25 ft. tall four-sided water veil is located in a commercial office building in Culver City, CA. Strategically set directly below a large skylight in this two-story lobby, reminiscent of a classic obelisk, the water feature generates a tower of water cascading down into the elegant business space.

Type
Water Veil

Materials
stainless steel mesh

Location
Culver City, CA