

Kennedy Wilson

A 32 ft. wide textured granite water wall consisting of 2-inch thick custom fabricated granite slabs was recently installed at a courtyard in an office building in Beverly Hills, CA. Underwater LED lights illuminate the wall to accentuate the water textures and movement. A custom fire pit with automated controls was also installed in the courtyard to provide a welcoming and tranquil lounge area for the employees and visitors.

Type

Granite water wall and fire pit in office courtyard

Materials

granite

Location

Beverly Hills, CA

Architect

Wolcott