

Miami Beach Residence

Created for a high-end, contemporary penthouse in Miami Beach, this recessed water wall is made to make viewers stop and stare. Though clean and simple in design, the water feature offers a dramatic focal point against the pure white palette provided by the space. The wall is composed of three bush-hammered thassos stone panels, each approximately 5 ft. wide by 12 ft. tall.

Type

recessed water wall in penthouse

Materials

Bush-hammered thassos stone

Location

Miami Beach, FL

Interior designer

Jennifer Post Design