

Stanford Plaza

A 17 ft. tall frameless Water Veil rises from a custom mosaic clad pool with multiple water nozzles. The half-round pool is capped in thick basalt stone. Underwater lights enhance the multiple water effects to create an architectural water feature that enhances this common outdoor space of a retail and office complex in downtown Los Angeles.

Type

Water veil feature in court yard

Materials

stainless steel, mosaic tilee

Location

Los Angeles, CA