

Temple Beth Sholom

We worked with Berliner Architects to install a new stainless steel podium water feature at Temple Beth Sholom in Santa Ana, California. This elegant centerpiece of the garden features a series of illuminated jets in a dark reflecting pool that reflects the sky opposite the synagogue, adding light, texture, and movement.

Type

Stainless steel podium fountain with illuminated nozzles

Materials

stainless steel, granite

Location

Santa Ana, CA

Landscape Architect

Berliner Architects