

Wilshire Vermont

This large scale feature was installed in the lobby of a multi-use building in a busy Los Angeles urban center. The custom glass water wall stands at 11ft. tall and 6 ft. wide; the ridged surface allows water to cascade down between two stone walls and into a long basin lined with ivory stone pavers.

Type

Ridged glass water wall in a lobby

Materials

glass, stone

Location

Los Angeles, CA

Architect

Coast Pacific Builders, Inc.