

Malibu Beach Inn

This 7 ft. tall bronze powder coated stainless steel Water Veil greets guests in the porte cochère of the renowned Malibu Beach Inn. The water feature serves as a well known landmark in the chic city of Malibu, as well as doubles as a soothing enclosure for the restaurant guests from the outside world. To complete the stylish design, river rocks were utilized to surround the basin with inset lighting that enhance the patterns of water gliding down a custom stainless steel mesh.

Type

Bronze powder coated stainless steel Water Veil

Materials

stainless steel, river rocks, basin lighting

Location

Malibu, CA