

Playa Vista Jewel II

The enchanting waterfall feature located in Playa Vista, CA, harkons back to the hanging gardens of Babalon. A classically designed synthesis of modeled ancient looking stone and a multi spout water springs out of a luscious green succulent wall, descending into a perfectly symetrical reflecting pool.

Type

Green wall with multiple spouts

Materials

copper, plants, river rocks

Location

Playa Vista, CA

Architect

C2 Collaborative