

The Works

Our concrete bowl fountain is the perfect addition to The Works, a newly built gathering hub in El Segundo, CA. A custom nozzle produces ripples across the pool of water, overflowing and gliding down the curvature of the bowl, sprinkling onto the river rocks below. Colorful reflections from the changing LED light of the nozzle & surrounding landscape add a playful and eye-catching touch to the modern plaza.

TYPE
Water fountain

MATERIALS
Concrete, river rocks

LOCATION
El Segundo, CA

ARCHITECT
Lifescapes International Inc.