

The Pointe at Vintage Club

Water Studio collaborated with Aetypic Architects on this one of a kind Water Wall at The Vintage Club in Indian Wells, CA. This almost surreal waterfall was designed to complement the country club's gorgeous setting, while it encapsulates a floating outdoor dining patio. This impressive outdoor water feature is comprised of numerous water rivulets to create the continuous soothing waterfall flow, while an LED lighting system illuminates the cascading water, and the lake below.

Type

Fountain with Rivulets

Materials

Stainless steel

Location

Indian Wells, CA

Architect

Aetypic

General Contractor

Turner Construction Company