

Studio 837

Standing at over 35 ft. tall, this four story Water Veil is one of the tallest ever built. The bold brushed stainless steel water feature sits in a residential condominium courtyard in Studio City, CA. Located in the main atrium of the complex, illuminated by colored lights at its base, the water feature can be seen from either side due to its lucid nature, creating a lovely and strong visual in the building's public space.

TYPE
Framed Water Veil

MATERIALS
Stainless steel

LOCATION
Studio City, CA

ARCHITECT
DW-LA Landscape Architects