

City National Plaza

Located in the City National Plaza in downtown Los Angeles, this contemporary water feature creates an urban oasis in the outdoor office courtyard. Made of stainless steel clad in absolute black granite, the perfectly still reflective pool continually overflows and disappears into bed of river rocks. This minimal design compliments the adjacent natural foliage and rough stone wall to provide a tranquil reflection of the surrounding city landscape.

Type

Infinity Edge Pool Fountain

Materials

Granite, stainless steel, beach pebbles

Location

Los Angeles, CA

Architect

Bennit Design Group

General Contractor

Pankow Builders