

Divcowest Water Wall

White aluminum fins separate variations of textures as water cascades down our granite water wall in a relaxing courtyard at Divcowest in Glendale, CA. Standing 13 feet tall, the water wall is the focal point of the outside area, working harmoniously with the modern landscape. The textures are created through a variety of different finishes and placed randomly to create a more visually dynamic water feature.

TYPE
Exterior Water Wall

MATERIAL
Granite, white aluminum panels

LOCATION
Glendale, CA

ARCHITECT
Wolcott Architecture