

Divcowest Granite Water Wall

White aluminum fins separate variations of textures as water cascades down our granite water wall in a relaxing courtyard at Divcowest in Glendale, CA. Standing 13 ft. tall, the water wall is the focal point of the outside area, working harmoniously with the modern landscape. The textures are created through a variety of different finishes and placed randomly to create a more visually dynamic water feature.

Type

Water wall

Materials

Granite

Location

Glendale, CA

Architect

Wolcott Architecture

General Contractor

Howard Building Corporation