

The Works

Our concrete bowl fountain is the perfect addition to The Works, a newly built gathering hub in El Segundo, CA. A custom nozzle produces ripples across the pool of water, overflowing and gliding down the curvature of the bowl, sprinkling onto the river rocks below. Colorful reflections from the changing LED light of the nozzle and surrounding landscape add a playful and eye-catching touch to the modern plaza.

Type

Reflective Pool Fountain

Materials

Concrete, beach pebbles

Location

El Segundo, CA

Architect

Lifescapes International Inc.

General Contractor

W. L. Butler Construction