

9454 Wilshire

A granite water wall adds a soothing element to the newly renovated lobby located in a prominent commercial office building in the heart of Beverly Hills. The alternating columns of ridged and honed black granite act as an artistic exercise, creating various textures as continuous waves of water gently fall 14 ft. from the ceiling and disappear into a basin clad in Italian marble.

Type
Interior water wall

Materials
Granite, marble

Location
Beverly Hills, CA

Architect
Gensler