

K1 Investment Water Veil

Located on the first floor of the newly renovated office space at K1 Investment, a 9 ft. wide Water Veil stands along the edge of the north balcony. Water cascades down the stainless steel mesh screen, adding a soothing ambiance to the modern patio. Custom light-trays sit slightly above the water level in a basin, illuminating the water feature and allowing the interesting water patterns to be seen from inside the building.

Type

Framed Water Veil

Materials

Stainless steel

Location

Manhattan Beach, CA

Architect

Aref & Associates

General Contractor

Clune Construction