

Two Story Frameless Water Veil at Century City Office Building

Five translucent water veils create the illusion of parallel panels of water falling two stories in the lobby of this modern Century City office. A pair of concealed linear LED light fixtures illuminate the veils of slowly moving water from above and below. The unending water waves disappear into a bed of light-colored pebbles efficiently concealing the equipment and utilities.

Type
Frameless Water Veil

Materials
Stainless steel

Location
Century City, CA

Architect
Gensler