

Metro Crossing Clubhouse

This custom water and fire feature creates a welcoming patio space for Metro Crossing, a master-planned community in Fremont, CA. Two reflecting pools flank a fire pit covered with pebbles creating a contrast in surface texture. Each module is clad in granite and surrounded by Mexican Beach Pebbles with hidden LED lighting to illuminate the feature at night.

Type

Exterior Water and Fire Feature

Materials

Granite

Location

Fremont, CA

Architect

C2 Collaborative