

Summitridge Stainless Steel Water Walls

A pair of mirror polished stainless steel water walls animate the master closet and bathroom of a luxury Beverly Hills estate. Built into the wall structure, mesmerizing water waves glide down each water wall and disappear into the floor. These unique water features add the movement and sounds of falling water over reflections of the surrounding room to create an extraordinary setting for the daily routine.

Type

Water Wall

Materials

Stainless steel

Location

Beverly Hills, CA