

Copper Infinity Podium Fountain

Made of smooth copper finished in a dark bronze patina, this infinity podium water feature is located on a rooftop deck that overlooks the downtown Los Angeles skyline. The 3 ft. wide upper pool reflects the blue sky while endless water waves seamlessly flow down the vertical surfaces. Underwater LED lights illuminate the cascading wave patterns and are surrounded by a bed of beach pebbles that conceal the submersed equipment.

Type
Exterior Water Fountain

Materials
Copper, granite

Location
Los Angeles, CA

General Contractor
Tyler Development