

Downtown Lobby Water Veil

This 18 ft. wide by 8 ft. tall water veil is the focal point of a new modern office lobby in downtown Los Angeles, CA. Situated behind the reception desk, the water wall's dynamic movement and subtle sound of falling water welcomes clients and creates a calming waiting room experience. Clad in a white metal surround the water feature basin extends an additional 4 ft. on one side to accommodate a planter bed.

Type

Water Veil

Materials

Stainless steel

Location

Los Angeles, CA

Architect

Gensler

General Contractor

Environmental Contracting (ECC)