

Granite Water and Fire Feature

The backyard terrace of a Pacific Palisades home boasts a stunning water and fire feature that blends elegance and modernity. Crafted from honed black granite, the podium is topped with three mesmerizing flames that rise from a shallow reflecting pool. Water cascades gracefully around custom stainless steel burners, flowing down all sides of the podium in a gentle waves. This sophisticated feature is strategically positioned to offer captivating views from both the pool and interior of this contemporary residence.

Type
Water and Fire

Material
Granite

Location
Pacific Palisades, CA

Interior Designer
Dejager Design

General Contractor
McCoy Construction