

One Culver Bowl Fountain

A bowl fountain offers a calming retreat within the desert garden of a fourth-floor outdoor terrace as part of the tenant improvements at One Culver in the heart of Culver City, CA. Measuring five feet in diameter, the striking bowl features water that rises from an adjustable central nozzle before cascading smoothly over its edges into a recessed stainless steel basin concealed beneath a layer of river rocks.

Type
Bowl Fountain

Material
Stainless steel

Location
Culver City, CA

Architect
Gensler

General Contractor
Turelk